

Decolonising and Diversifying our Curriculum, Research and Partnerships (DecCur) is an initiative introduced by six partner universities - University of Galway, University of the Basque Country - Euskal Herriko Unibertsitatea (UPV/EHU), University of Ghent, University of Groningen (RUG), University of Bordeaux, and University of Goettingen - and funded by Enlight Plus programme.

ENLIGHT is a European University alliance of ten comprehensive, research-intensive universities from ten European countries aiming to conduct an impact-driven and challenge-based transformation of European higher education to empower learners as globally engaged citizens with state-of-the-art knowledge and skills, while synergising our R&I potential with and for our societal partners, to tackle major societal transitions and to promote equitable quality of life and sustainability.

This initiative aims to explore opportunities, processes and challenges connected to decolonising curriculum by presenting experiences across Universities and local communities in Europe.

A series of free webinars have been organized for this purpose, and we cordially invite you to join us at our second webinar organized by University of Göttingen.

Transnational Memory Work as a Method of Decolonizing Academic Knowledge Production

Sabine Hess

*Institute for Cultural Anthropology/ European Ethnology
Center for Global Migration Studies
University of Göttingen*

Andrea Bogner & Barbara Dengel
*Intercultural German Studies
University of Göttingen*

JUNE 11, 3:15-4:45 P.M. CEST

<https://uni-goettingen.zoom-x.de/j/65419756927>