

LIPIT IP & IT Forum

7 and 8 November, 2025

Grüner Saal at Historische Sternwarten

<https://uni-goettingen.zoom-x.de/j/69053714618>

7 November

9:30-9:45 Welcome speech

Prof. Dr. Andreas Wiebe, LL.M. (Virginia)

9:45-10:30 Dr. Matej Myška

Conceptualization of Normative Goals of European Copyright Law: AI & Copyright Enforcement¹

10:30-11:15 Dr. Piotr Wierzejewski

Europe at a Crossroads: Can IP and Regulation Keep Pace with AI and Global Standards?

11:15-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-12:30 Dr. Stephan Wolke

AI: IP for AI and AI for IP

12:30-13:15 Aurora Mullatahiri

A practical approach on deployer obligations when using AI systems in the work environment

13:15-14:30 Lunch

14:30-15:15 Ulrich Herfurth and Antonia Herfurth

The practical use of AI in business and the responsibility of the management when using AI

15:15-16:00 Prof. Dr. Mindaugas Kiškis

Regulatory Failure Lessons for the EU AI Act

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-17:15 Hendrik Witt and Dr. Simon Gerdemann

High-Risk AI Providers: Navigating Rules and Realities

18:00 Dinner

¹ This talk is based on a work-in-progress paper co-authored with Mgr. Ondřej Woznica, Ph.D. with tentative title "Conceptualization of Normative Goals of European Copyright Law" created within the project "Online Platforms and Copyright Enforcement" <https://www.muni.cz/en/research/projects/73517> supported by the Czech Scientific Foundation, ID-Nr. 25-17679S

8 November

9:30-10:15 Prof. Dr. Zsolt György Balogh

Development of AI and new challenges of cybersecurity

10:15-11:00 Dr. Roman Heidinger

Can anyone make “Dubai Chocolate”? Unfair Competition and Geographic Indications

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:15 Prof. Dr. Mira Burri

Digital Trade Law: Features and Recent Trends

12:15-13:00 Dr. Nico Schur

The Unified Patent Court - Practical Experiences from European Patent Litigation before the UPC

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-14:45 Tilbe Tuğanlı

The Clash Between MICA Regulation and GDPR

14:45-15:30 Volodymyr Spirin

Key Privacy Risks Faced by In-House Experts in Corporate Environments

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-16:45 Meisa Kamyab

Law and ethics of biotechnological inventions: a case study of human enhancement

16:45-17:30 Dr. Mathias Lejeune

The application of the fair use doctrine in the context of AI Systems in the USA

17:30-18:00 Closing

Prof. Dr. Andreas Wiebe, LL.M. (Virginia)