

Call for papers

Göttingen Workshop on Ibero-American Development

September 24-25, 2025 | Göttingen, Germany

The Ibero-America Institute for Economic Research at Georg-August-Universität Göttingen invites submissions for the first Göttingen Workshop on Ibero-American Development. Confirmed keynote speaker is Prof Dr. Ana María Ibáñez Londoño (Vice President, Inter-American Development Bank).

The workshop will discuss topics related to development economics, focusing on Latin America and the Caribbean. Contributions both from micro and macro perspectives are welcome. Topics of particular interest include, but are not limited to: Conflict, Aid, Behavioral Economics, Education, Gender, Growth, Health, International Organizations, Labor Markets, Methods and Measurement, Microfinance, Migration, Political Economy, Environment, Agriculture, Institutions, Trade, FDI, SMEs, Entrepreneurship, Crime.

Researchers are invited to apply for participation, submit extended abstracts (in PDF format) or alternatively a full paper, through the online portal. There is possible to choose between an oral presentation or a poster presentation.

Important information

- Location: Göttingen, Germany
- Registration fee: Free
- Limited number of travel stipends for applicants based in: Latin America, Poland, Netherlands, Normandy, and Valencia (application stated with submission)

Key dates

- Submission deadline: 15 June 2025
- Decision notification: 15 July 2025
- Workshop dates: 24-25 September 2025

For more information about the activities of the Ibero-America Institute for Economic Research, please visit our homepage and for further information on the conference visit our website. In case of further questions, please contact paul.elguezabal@uni-goettingen.de.

Sponsored by:

Niedersächsisches Ministerium
für Wissenschaft und Kultur

Association of Former Members and Friends of the Ibero-America
Institute