

ERASMUS+ KEY ACTION 107

GO INTERNATIONAL PLUS 2015

Erasmus+ programme promotes equal opportunities and inclusion for all members regardless of gender, age, sexual orientation, religion and belief, disability and chronic illness, ethnic and social background. The actions aim at facilitating the access to the programme for participants with special needs.

To promote equal opportunities, the Georg-August-Universität Göttingen supports the diversified needs of people from different background in gender, racial, cultural, social, religious and disabilities all over the world. Alongside specific measures supporting equal opportunity, the University aims to integrate principles of equal opportunity and the promotion of diversity into all university areas. The aim is to set an end to discrimination and recognize as well as enable manifold life choices and life styles across university. Consequently, the University pays special attention to promoting equal opportunity in the Erasmus+ programme, which is reflected in the calls for applications as well as the selection process and support of selected persons.

For more detail, please visit the Equal Opportunities Office (<https://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/equal-opportunities-office/22045.html>).